Giant decrepit factories and seaside motorbike rides, coal grey sand and the bluest of seas, scarecrows and striped smoke pipes, magic spells and abandoned mines, in a rundown Greek village. Yorgos is leaving and Vicky is casting her magic spells. How many magic spells should she cast to keep her brother home forever? “To Vancouver” is a short chronicle of a disappearing act in the times of the new Depression.

Athens, 2021. Independence Day. Everybody celebrates the 200 years since the Greek War of Independence. Not everybody. Dimitroula is not allowed to play with the boys. Neither is Vlad, an immigrant's son. Dimitroula lights a small fire and tells a small lie about Vlad. Lies easily get out of control. So do fires.
